COMMITTEE REPORTS

BUDGET AND PERSONNEL COMMITTEE

The budget and personnel committee met at 8:30 prior to the 9:00 teleconference board meeting. Mr. Blowers shared with the Board that our auditor, Richard McNeilly, will be at the June Board meeting to go over the audit with us. Also, due to the current pandemic situation the local shares are coming in slower and some state funding is currently on hold.

AUDIT COMMITTEE

1) Abstract of Claims – The audit committee reviewed abstracts totaling $34,272.07. On a motion duly made (VanHorn/Barnes) and carried, the abstracts were approved.

REGIONAL PROGRAM ACTIVITIES

1) Economic Resiliency as funded by EDA – Chelsea told the Board that STC has been invited to apply for $400,000 of non-competitive CARES Act funding to support technical assistance for regional economic resiliency strategies. Chelsea has had calls with all three County IDAs and Three Rivers to discuss their needs and ideas of how we will spend the money in a way that would be mutually beneficial and provide necessary data on the state of the economy and any necessary data to determine how best to recover from the current situation.

2) Intergovernmental Reviews – Janet Thigpen

2011 NYSDEC Cooperating Technical Partners Grant Application for Flood Mapping

Project Applicant: NYS Department of Environmental Conservation

Description: This is a four year project to develop and support planning level flood hazard data for the National Flood Insurance Program in the Chemung, Tioga, Susquehanna, and Chenango river watershed. This won't result in updated flood mapping now, but it is a step in that process.

Federal Agency: Department of Homeland Security (FEMA)
